Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and the evidence presented at the detention hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 65 year old citizen of Mexico and has no legal status in the United States. Immigration Customs and Enforcement has issued a detainer against him.
2. Defendant is charged with making a false statement in application for a passport in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1542 and making a false claim of U.S. citizenship in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 911. Defendant faces a penalty of up to 10 years in prison on the first charge and up to 3 years in prison on the second charge.
3. Defendant previously returned to Mexico voluntarily after a deportation proceeding was initiated. He has prior misdemeanor convictions for driving while intoxicated and possession of marijuana.
4. Defendant is known to have used numerous aliases and false dates of birth.
5. No condition or combination of conditions of release would reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
